

Momni Stories

- ❖ Nora Elsberry in Draper, Utah used Momni as a guest. She started a new job in May 2019 and needed childcare for her 2-year-old daughter for a few weeks until she went to preschool in June. Nora was able to book several hosts near her so she could go to work.
- ❖ Yadira Gomez in the Houston, Texas area used Momni as a guest. She was able to book Christin McQueen in May 2019 so she could go to an appointment without bringing her young boys with her.
- ❖ Taylor Edwards in Provo, UT as a guest. He booked a Momni so he could get his haircut without bringing his 18 month old with him.
- ❖ Shaniqua Staples in San Antonio, Texas used Momni as a guest. She booked a Momni host so she could go on a date night with her husband before she left town again for work.
- ❖ Lisa Draper in Lehi, UT uses Momni as a guest. She is able to book hosts so she can continue to work on her business, Draper Fine Art. She originally signed up as a host, but with her growing business, she can now use it more as a guest.
- ❖ Erin Bjorn in Provo, UT used Momni as a guest. She booked a host so she could go to a show meeting for the BYU Theater and Media Arts Department.
- ❖ Brittany Littlefield in Lehi, UT used Momni as a guest. She was able to book a host very last minute after her babysitter cancelled so she could go to an appointment.
- ❖ Ben Cummins in Provo, UT used Momni as a guest. He was able to book a Momni when his wife, Skye went out of town and he was called into work last minute.
- ❖ Tamisha Shetselaar in Draper, UT used Momni as a guest. She booked a Momni so she could go to a meeting with her professor as she furthers her education while raising her children.

- ❖ Tricia Roskelley Harmon in Draper, UT used Momni as a guest. She booked a Momni for her two young children so she and her husband could go to her cousin's wedding.
- ❖ Vanessa Hunsaker in Provo, UT used Momni as a guest. She booked a Momni for her three children so she could go to an event at the local university.
- ❖ Chrissy Branson Vail in Draper, UT used Momni as a guest. She is able to regularly book a super Momni host, Tamisha, in her area.
- ❖ Skye Cummins in Provo, UT used Momni as a guest. She used Momni to take her older kids to a museum in Salt Lake City.
- ❖ Molly Smith in Denver, Colorado used Momni as a guest. Molly lives in Denver, and their family was going on a trip to Saint George, UT so she and her husband could train for a triathlon. She was able to book a Momni in Saint George for a ride/run that she and her husband would do together.
- ❖ Tamisha Schetselaar in Draper, UT also used Momni as a host. Tamisha is a very popular Momni host in her neighborhood. She handed out gift cards out to her neighbors to encourage them to join Momni and book her as a host. This has helped her to become one of our highest booked Momnis.
- ❖ Roxanna Builtron is a Momni user in Little Rock, Arkansas. She is a single mother who joined Momni to try and find a good balance between work and her family. She wants to be a Momni host to help other moms, especially with last minute childcare needs.
- ❖ Corina Pestana She is a Momni host because she wants to help support other mothers and the Momni Foundation. For these reasons, she keeps her rates low so she can watch as many children as she can.